

Proposal for New Bishops and Spouses Conference Review Committee College for Bishops

To review the New Bishops and Spouses Conference (NBSC) program in order to

1. Describe the development of the program in terms of goals and outcomes in relationship to developing curriculum;
2. Describe the means of managing and providing ongoing review and oversight;
3. Review and summarize assessments of the program;
4. Identify next steps for review and assessment;
5. Review and assessment with identification of outstanding challenges;
6. Design and develop curriculum and materials for January 2012 event
7. Recommendations for oversight, management, and design.

Membership:

- Members of the Board: D. Wolfe, A. St. Louis
- Two bishops having attended recent NBSC events
- Clay Matthews
- CfB Staff

Persons may represent more than one of the “positions” above.

Schedule

- April to October 2011: Form NBSC Review Committee, gather data regarding 1 through 4 above, convene committee, design and develop curriculum and report to the Board at October 2011 meeting.
- October 2011: Board of Directors receive report from curriculum review and act upon proposed next steps.
- October 2011 to April 2012: coordinate structure, goals and objectives with Program Review Committee.
- April 2012: Report of NBSC Review Committee to Board of Directors.

Proposal for Program Review Committee College for Bishops

Charge to the Committee

I. To review the Living Our Vows program, both the mentoring and three-year residence components, in order to

8. Describe the development of the program in terms of goals and outcomes in relationship to developing curriculum;
9. Describe the means of managing and providing ongoing review and oversight;
10. Review and summarize assessments of the program;
11. Identify next steps for review and assessment;
12. Review and assessment with identification of outstanding challenges and with recommendations.

II. To make recommendations for next steps in the review process (such as those above for the review of the LOV program) of the other programs of the College in order to means of managing and providing ongoing review and oversight.

Membership

- Members of the Board: T.Sedgwick, B.Craddock, D.Johnson, A.St.Louis
- One member of the curriculum design committee for LOV residences (D.Johnson)
- Two bishops having attended their 2nd or 3rd (final) Living Our Vows Residency this last May.
- Clay Matthews
- CfB Staff

Persons may represent more than one of the “positions” above.

Schedule

- (I.1-4) April to October 2011: Form LOV Review Committee, gather data regarding I.1-4 above, convene committee, and report to the Board at October 2011 meeting.
- (I.1-4) October 2011: Board of Directors receive report from curriculum review and act upon proposed next steps.
- (I.5) October 2011 to April 2012: LOV Review Committee complete review).
- (II) October 2011 to April 2012: Gather descriptions of other College for Bishops’ programs and present processes for design, planning, and review.
- (I. & II) April 2012: Report of LOV Review Committee to Board of Directors and separate report with recommendations for review of other programs.

04.11.11